Marie Zeferjohn Badly Burned When Clothing Catches Fire.

Mother Wraps Bed Clothing Over Flaming Clothes.

Marie Zeferjohn, 5-year-old daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Zeferjohn, ly-burned this morning when her dress caught fire from the flame of a gas stove. The little girl had been sent into the kitchen by her mother to turn out the fire in the stove. A few moout the fire in the stove. A few mo-ments later Mrs. Zeferjohn heard creams, and rushing into the kitchen und the child wrapped in flames.

With quick presence of mind she ized a quilt and wound Marie tight-

With quick presence of mind she seized a quilt and wound Marie tightly in it. The fire was soon smothered. She was - badly burned on her left hand, arm and side. Mrs. Zeferjohn was burned on the hand and leg, in extinguishing the flames.

When the child's clothing caught fire, she first ran into the yard, being too frightened to scream. She then rushed into the house, and her condition was discovered. How her dress came in contact with the fire in the stove is not known. Dr. M. A. Swift, who was called, said that if Marie has inhaled none of the flames her quick recovery is certain.
